

Naturopathy Yoga & Long Stay Homes (NYLSH)

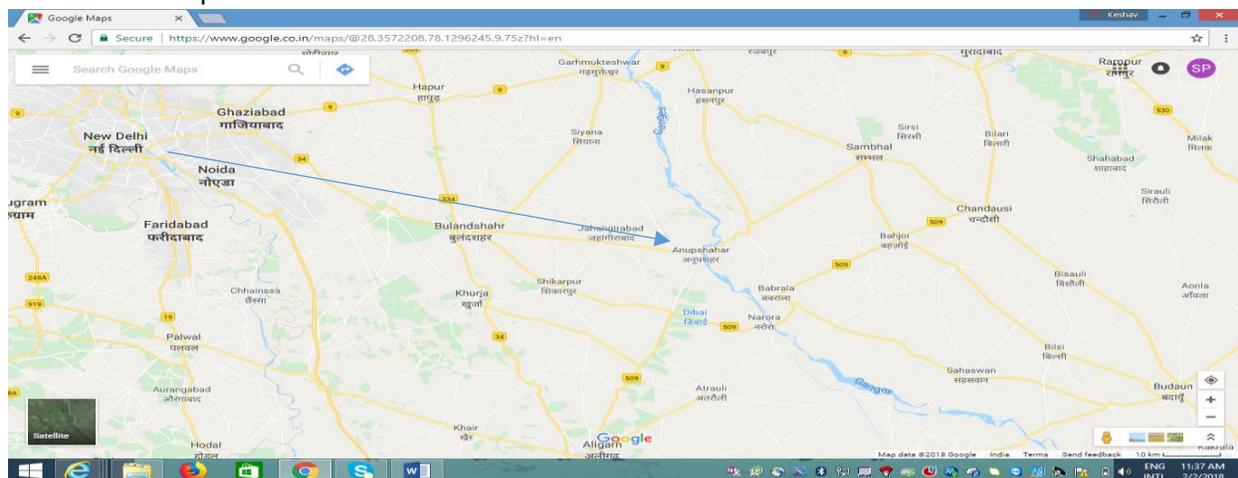

(Old Age Housing managed by Lifeline400.com Pvt Ltd.)

Anoopshahr, Distt. Bulandshahr, UP

The Naturopathy Yoga & Long Stay Homes (NYLSH) is an initiative to house people/ couples up to their old age who wish to achieve longevity in natural environment. The metro cities of today have become so crowded that the air, water and food are all polluted beyond acceptable limits. There is no compulsion for aged people to stay in cities as they have already enjoyed glamorous life in big cities and now they want a peaceful and pure environs of nature with cheapest cost of living and organic foods. The natural life shall ensure longevity to old age people which can reach as high as 400 years, recently achieved by Devraha Baba.

Location:

The NYLSH is proposed to be located in the vicinity of Anoopshahr, a small city on river Ganga, in district Bulandshahr, Uttar Pradesh, India. The area is full of vegetation all around, full underground water (as pure as Ganga Water). The city is 90 Km away from Delhi, a journey of 2 hrs by road and 60 Km from new International airport at Jewar.

The area has green environment and full water availability round the year. The farmers usually grow four crops in a year. The small city has a Post Graduate Degree College, an Engineering College and a good privately managed Hospital. It also has a helipad in the campus of JP University. The city has a mass gathering (Mela) on the occasion of Purnima (full moon) & Amavasya (dark night), two times in a month, for Holy bath in Ganga, a sacred river.

The Management:

The management of NYLSH is headed by Er. & Dr. S.P.Sharma who has been with NTPC Ltd, a Maharatna Power company in India. He has also been practicing Biochemic, Magnet therapy, Homeopathy and Naturopathy for last 25 years. He has also presented papers in International forums on various subjects related to power, human longevity and health. He has also written books on healthy living and how to achieve longevity thru alternative medicine. The present effort in providing the longevity homes is in the direction of achieving a longevity for all who wish to live a comfortable life in natural environment.

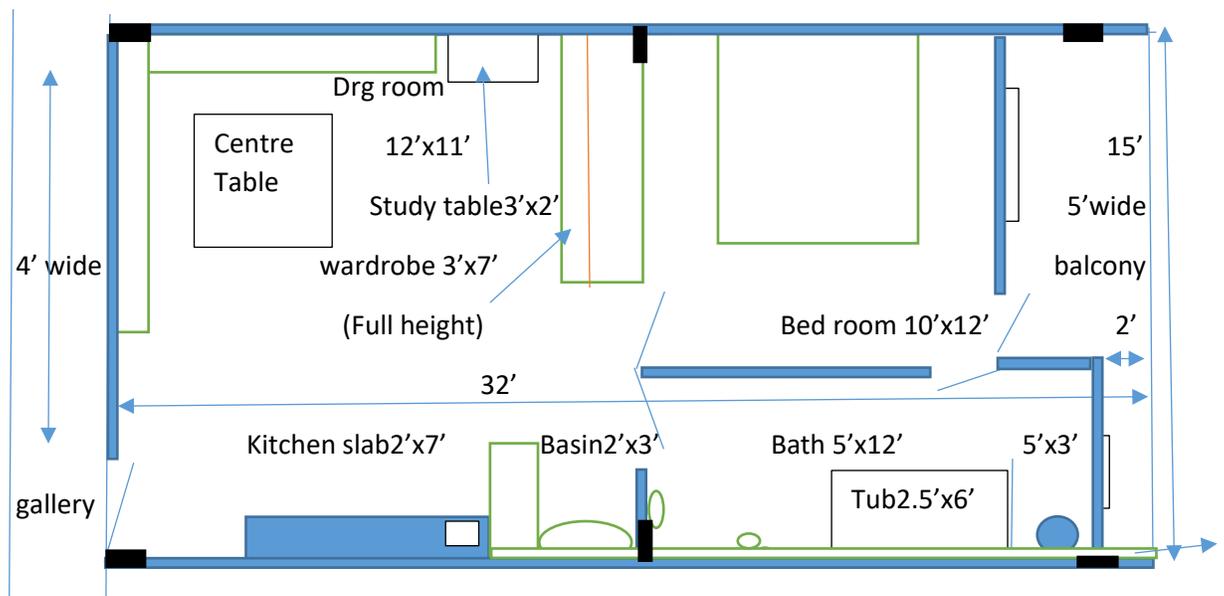

The Concept:

The concept of NYLSH is derived from ancient ashrams where people used to leave their houses for taking Sanyas after the age of 75 years till life ends. They used to teach and work for society and share their life experiences. Now a days the concept of Sanyas has almost vanished. People continue to stay in their own houses with or without their children. The children may or may not give them due importance and the old people feel neglected in their own houses which they built with their hard earned savings. Sometimes servants kill them after finding them lonely. So it is an effort to provide a useful and meaningful life to the retired people away from their children. It will serve as a second alternative home when they find that the children are not caring for them or they require company of same age people to pass time beautifully.

The facilities:

The facilities in the NYLSH shall include but not be limited to the following-

1. Every couple shall be provided an air conditioned fully furnished studio apartment/ room approx. size 480 sq ft with super area of 640 sq ft having a bed room 10'x12', Drawing room 11'x12', bathroom 5'x15' and an open kitchen slab, with complete wood work.
2. The room layout-

3. The campus shall have a common mess facility where only vegetarian food shall be served and no hard drinks. The campus shall have a swimming pool, badminton court, indoor games and common room with library.
4. The campus shall also have an advanced technology center where still active inmates can make something new and useful for the society. It can also serve as a training center for entrepreneurs.
5. The city is having many schools, a Govt. Hospital & a post graduate degree college, an engineering college, a private hospital, so effort shall be made to provide part-time engagement to willing educators/ practitioners. JP hospital facility shall also be usable as an outsider.
6. The willing inmates shall have option to find a part time employment in the working of NYLSC and other nearby NGOs and social organizations.
7. Some innovative activities such as a TV serial on social topics may also be planned involving inmates. Group excursions, religious tours, foreign tours in groups may also find their way.

Benefits of joining NYLSH:

The inmates shall have the best of environment for living a healthy and meaningful life. They will have access to part time employment just to keep them in mobile condition and their brain active. They will be cared with natural and healthy life. The in-house facility of naturopathy treatment shall be available to all inmates free of cost. All the food shall be organically grown and water shall be as pure as Ganga water. The old age people will find a companion for whole of life for both the members of the couple individually. It means either member shall be welcomed and respected till their full life. The persons can live as long as they feel beneficial and they will be free to leave the home in case they don't like the environment and/or service up to their satisfaction. Only vegetarian Organic foods shall be served in the Longevity Homes. Alcohol, Smoking and pan-gutka etc. shall be strictly prohibited in the campus.

The consideration:

All the benefits of a healthy environment for life come at a very cheap price for the couple. There will be following types of memberships-

1. Onetime deposit of Rs.1,00,000/- will provide a membership of the group, under this category a couple can join the homes depending on the vacancy and shall have to pay a daily charge for accommodation plus food charges as per present rates. The stay duration shall be booked on-line with an advance payment for the time they want to stay. Some people who want to have change of atmosphere for medical purposes can avail this facility.
2. Onetime deposit of Rs. 5,00,000/- will provide a facility of 60 days accommodation with free boarding and lodging, any time every year free of cost for life of couple. They shall be entitled for free food value of up to Rs.5000/- per month, beyond which they have to pay. Electricity charges shall be as per actual for the time of stay.
3. Onetime deposit of Rs.10,00,000/- will provide a room accommodation for whole year for life of couple and they shall pay for monthly maintenance charges for the room (including electricity charges) and food value on actual basis for the period of stay.
4. Onetime deposit of Rs.20,00,000/- will provide a dedicated room accommodation with free stay and free full food value for the life of couple. Electricity charges shall be as per actual for the time of stay.

The above payments are basically a conditional refundable deposit till such time the inmate wishes to live and the NYLSH is ready to keep them. In case of breach of agreement, the inmate shall be able to take back his/her deposit without interest at any time. The deposits can also be refunded if a new member is in waiting and someone shows willingness to quit the group. The above rates shall be liable for revision depending on the sustainability of the project and can be revised after agreement with the inmates. The changed rates will be automatically applicable to subsequent inmates.

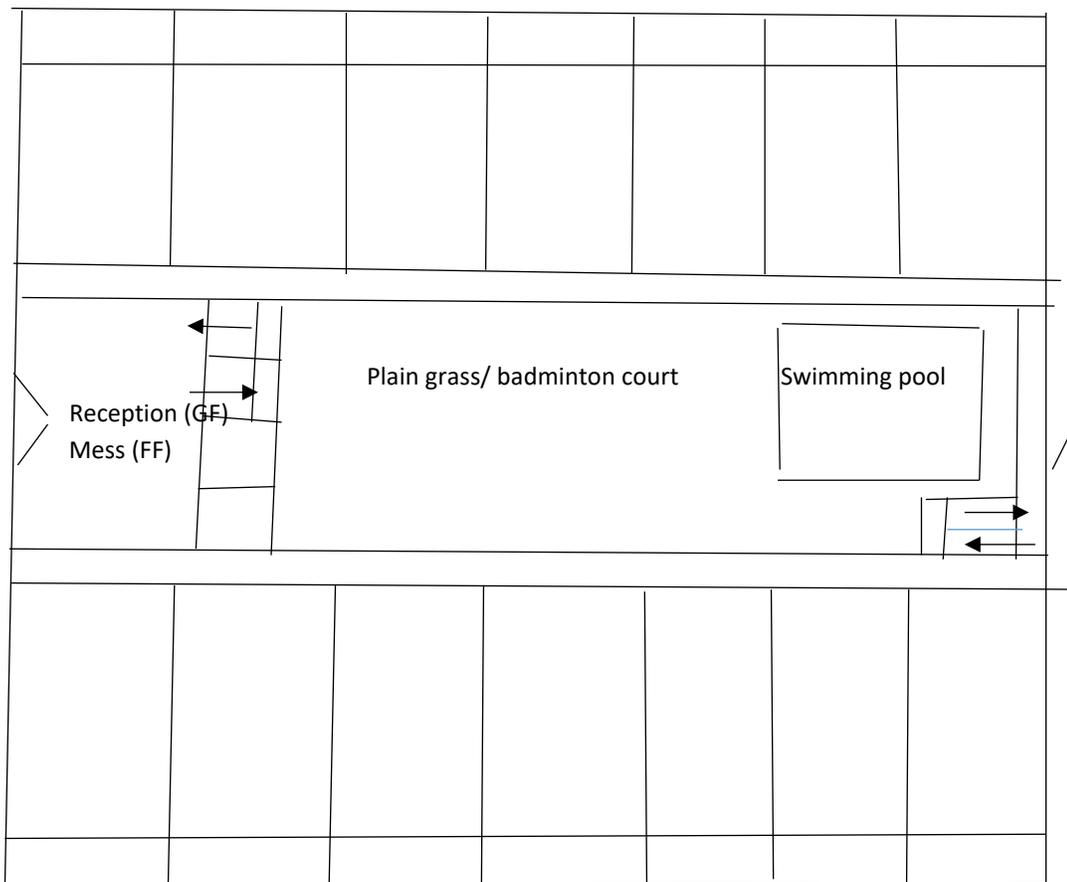

The project Schedule:

The project has been conceived with around 200 couple inmates. But the project has started with few sample studio rooms. The members can take over on first -come-first basis. The additional rooms construction will continue to keep few rooms available at any time. This will ensure that needy people get their rooms immediately on request.
